2009 Sangiovese Rosato

This beautiful wine has found you again and we know you missed it. The 2009 Sangiovese Rosato might just be the best rosato to be produced by Zucca yet. It has already won a silver at the county fair and we anticipate more greatness from this cute little pink fellow. To give you a little story about our friend, the grapes were hand selected and crushed right away into the fermentation bins. The color was just so delicious and the flavors were like a butter vanilla peach gelato. Now some strawberries and cream is more a prominent feature with a touch of fresh melon. Just delightful.

A perfect spring wine, take a stroll down the path with a glass and admire the blooming flowers. The rosato is aromatic and vibrant with a touch of peaches and cream, raspberries, caramel and yellow iris with a dry finish. Serve chilled with salads, seafood and if you like the spicy try it with some Thai dishes. You will fall in love with this one.
